Cotton Launching Supreme Court War Room

Today, I am launching an emergency Supreme Court War Room at scotuswarroom.com to help President Trump fulfill his constitutional duty to appoint the next Supreme Court justice.

For too long, liberals have used the courts to bypass our democracy and force unconstitutional, far-left policies on the American people. In 2016, Americans decided that we'd had enough.

I applaud President Trump's relentless efforts to fill vacancies on our courts with judges who will follow the Constitution and the rule of law, not legislate from the bench. I look forward to his announcement of the nominee.
